

Jaroslaw Wieczorkiewicz

Architecture & Visual Design

Jarek comes from Poland where he graduated from Gdansk University of Technology, gaining an MA in Architecture. Once he completed his studies he worked for Polish practice in Gdansk and was involved in a number of residential and leisure projects. In 2006 he moved to London and joined David Morley Architects. He has worked on the School of Sport, Exercise and Health Sciences at Loughborough University, the mixed use development for Urban Splash at Watchet in North Somerset and the Velodrome tender for London Olympic Games 2012. He is currently working on the 5,000 seat Water Polo Venue for the London 2012 Olympic Games, and leads the practice's visualisation department, working on 3D modelling and photorealistic images.
