

Qualifications

Barch(Hons) DipArch

Karol Quinn

Senior Architect

Karol joined David Morley Architects in January 2011 and has most recently been Project Architect for Zone W of the King's Cross masterplan, a large residential project in central London for developer Argent, recently submitted for planning permission.

Previous projects at David Morley Architects include Keynes College student housing for the University of Kent, a residential project at Lister Mills with Urban Splash and Dickson Poon University of Oxford China Centre Building.

Karol studied at Edinburgh College of Art and qualified as an Architect in 2006. He previously worked with Smith Scott Mullan Associates in Edinburgh where he was Project Architect for a number of large residential projects throughout Scotland and also worked on various university and residential masterplan projects

Relevant projects

- Kent Institute of Medicine and Surgery
- Keynes College, University of Kent
- Lister Mills
- Dickson Poon China Centre
- Zone W of the King's Cross masterplan