Matt Parford

Business Development and Communications Manager

Much of Matt's career has been spent managing excellent client relationships, and successful creative and technical teams, in-house or outsourcing.

This has benefited him enormously when sharing solutions and knowledge to ensure quality production, to time and to budget. As a Highly organised individual he has proven efficiency in flexibly managing multiple projects simultaneously across different time zones.

Matt has extensive Industry experience, spanning a 12 year history in marketing with the property industry and over 20 years in Architectural Visualisation, including his time at university where he studied Interior Design at Brunel University and graduated with a BA (Hons).

He has always enjoyed developing strong working relationships with clients and working intimately with architects, as well as Planning Authorities, Environmental Assessors and all levels of consultant teams.
